RESPONSE TO NOTICE OF ALLOWABILITY

The purpose of this response is to confirm a telephone conference held today between Examiner Shai and the undersigned attorney for the applicants.

During the discussion, the examiner stated that the notice of allowability mailed on May 7, 1997 incorrectly indicated that a substitute oath or declaration is required. Examiner Shai agreed that the originally-filed declaration is sufficient and that a substitute oath or declaration is not needed.

Examiner Shai speculated that she may have had in mind requiring applicants to submit new formal drawings. (The box for indicating this requirement is located immediately below the box that the examiner had checked regarding the substitute oath or declaration.) For the record, applicants note that formal drawings were filed in response to an objection from the draftsman that accompanied the first examiner's action (the letter of transmittal for the drawings bears a certificate of mailing dated May 10, 1994). In addition, the notice of allowability indicates that formal drawings filed on May 24, 1994 are acceptable. If new formal drawings are in fact needed, applicants request that a new notice of allowability with this requirement be issued.
